New Zealand South Island Golf Tour

14-20 February 2020

www.morangolftours.com.au

Tour features

About Queenstown: With dramatic natural beauty, long stretches of coast and soaring mountains, New Zealand is a natural playground, especially for golfers. Graced by 400 courses, this golfing paradise offers up a new adventure for golfers; in fact, it is one of the ‘hottest’ golf destinations in the world with many of its spectacular courses holding international acclaim.

Our tour is based in Queenstown, Otago on the South Island of New Zealand. The resort town is one of New Zealand’s top visitor destinations; it sits on the shore of crystal clear Lake Wakatipu among dramatic alpine ranges.

With a smorgasbord of outdoor activities on offer, you’ll be spoilt for choice with how to spend your ‘rest day’. Scenic cable car up the mountains, boat cruises, hiking, cycling or helicopter rides or ‘retail therapy’ may take your fancy (if bungy jumping, sky diving, canyon swinging, jet boating, horse trekking or river rafting aren’t your thing!).

Our trip: Join us for six nights/seven days in the spectacular golfing haven of Queenstown.

We’ll arrive into Queenstown Airport and spend our first three nights/four days at the Hilton Queenstown Resort and Spa, on the waterfront of the eastern side of the lake, and play Jacks Point (ranked #2*) and Queenstown (ranked #49*) golf clubs.

Well then move to The Crowne Plaza Queenstown, nestled on the waterfront in the ‘downtown’ area, where you can enjoy your ‘rest day’, before playing Arrowtown (ranked #13*) and Millbrook (ranked #8*) golf courses.

We’ll dine at Queenstown’s best restaurants as well as a number of local haunts offering authentic New Zealand fare. Our New Zealand Golf Tour is sure to be a conquest any golf lover will relish!
