The Open Championship marks its 150th anniversary at the traditional home of golf, the Old Course, St Andrews.

The significance of the 150th Open is at the heart of our 2021 golf tour to Scotland; come with us to experience Scotland's golfing heritage as we play seven of its most revered courses, starting east of Edinburgh at North Berwick, where we will play with hickory clubs, and Gullane; before heading to play the Carnoustie Championship Course and Buddon Links. Upon arriving into St Andrews, we'll play Scotland's newest course, Dumbarnie and the highly-acclaimed Castle and Kingsbarns courses. We will also hold PGA clinics along the way.

We will stay in luxury accommodation, from the Marine Hotel in North Berwick to the Carnoustie Golf Hotel and Spa. Our tour will culminate at The 150th Open in St Andrews, where we'll stay in terraced accommodation in the heart of St Andrews. There you can walk to all the action of the Championship.

Our 2021 golf tour also celebrates traditional Scottish cuisine; we'll dine in character-filled local haunts and Calendonian fine-dining establishments.
