The Open makes its return to southern England in 2020

From waking up at the crack of dawn for the first tee shot, to the final putt of the round drop, there is no experience in sport quite like a day at The Open.

In 2020 The Open will return to Royal St George's for the first time since 2011, when an emotional Darren Clarke fulfilled his boyhood dream of becoming Champion Golfer of the Year.

Experience all the drama and excitement of The 149th Open as the world's best players face the unrelenting challenge of links golf to become the Champion Golfer of the Year, with fans of all ages from all over the world.

The return of The Open to Royal St. George's will see one of the great occasions in world sport taking place on the historic Kent coast providing a unique and memorable atmosphere for spectators. The spectacular 6th hole 'The Maiden' is sure to be a popular viewing spot as spectators line the towering dunes which surround the green.

Stay within 20 minutes of The Open with our official ticket and accommodation packages

As Open Championship Authorised Providers, we're proud to offer a range of self-guided packages for The 149th Open at Sandwich. Our packages include official tickets to The 149th Open, accommodation (located within 20 minutes of Royal St Georges), breakfast, and parking passes. Furthermore, our packages offer golf fans a range of options for the dates they would like to attend The Open, so if you're after the practise rounds, rounds one and two, or the weekend (or a mix of these), please read more about our 149th Open Championship packages below.
